

Lecturer in GCSE Maths

Salary: Up to £39,101

Closing Date: 5.00pm, Tuesday 28 January 2025

Apply: <https://www.burnley.ac.uk/about-us/vacancies/>

We are seeking an enthusiastic and ambitious Lecturer in GCSE Maths to teach effectively on a range of programmes across the College Curriculum and to provide effective tutorial and pastoral support.

With a degree or equivalent level qualification in a relevant discipline, you will have the ability to display excellent teaching skills in the area of GCSE Maths. You will have the knowledge of current issues in Further Education relating to the curriculum area.

A recognised teaching qualification is not essential for this role, Lecturers can be supported through a mentoring system and staff development programmes to develop their classroom practice and the College has an excellent Staff Development programme where a recognised teaching qualification can be gained.

The salary for this post is up to £39,101.

Burnley College Sixth Form Centre is the country's Number One College, providing first-class Further Education, University Education, Apprenticeship, business training and adult learning programmes, in the heart of Pennine Lancashire. Please also see our College Charter below.

At Burnley College, we celebrate the diversity of all our staff, students and visitors. We provide a safe and supportive environment in which everyone is able to study and work to the best of their abilities and we are committed to promoting equality of opportunity for all.

The College is dedicated to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all learners and expects all staff to share in this commitment. Employment at the College is subject to an Enhanced DBS Check via the Disclosure and Barring Service and any post involving regulated activity will also be subject to an additional barred list check.
