

Carpentry and Joinery portable power tools

Crossword

Across

- 2. Other than nails, this is another type of fixing used to secure plasterboards (6)
- 3. Many years ago this nail was used to secure flooring to joists (3-5)
- 7. This type of nail is used on structural carcassing such as stud partitions (5-4)
- 8. The hole drilled prior to inserting a screw is known as a _____ hole (5)
- 9. Nails and screws are best processed in this way if they are used externally (10)
- 10. The fixings used to secure materials to plasterboard are called hollow wall _____ (7)

Down

- 1. This type of nail is used to secure skirting boards (4-4)
- 4. The three head types on screws are pozi, Phillips and _____ (7)
- 5. When inserting screws into masonry products, this fixing aid is required (4-4)
- 6. This type of nail has a series of ridges on it to secure it to the surface material (7-4)